Disciplinary Rules

There are rules and guidelines for program participation called Community Agreements. We have designated rules for which there are strict guidelines and failure to comply will result in immediate dismissal from our program. These rules are considered zero-tolerance:

- Use of any drugs, tobacco products, or alcohol after entry into our program
- Failure to notify staff of another participant's use of drugs, tobacco, or alcohol
- Tampering with the integrity of our drug testing procedure
- Theft of property (of any kind) or leaving without permission
- Threats or acts of violence (Physical violence, verbal aggression, and intimidation)
- Failure to comply with rules and requirements for passes
- Intimate, physical, and/or sexual behavior with anyone during program
- Failure to report another student's intimate, physical, and/or sexual behavior
- The burning of candles or incense
- Failure to comply with the payment contract in Phase 2
- Participants who are found driving a vehicle without a valid driver's license, registration, or insurance
- Giving any information about other participants to callers or guest

You will be dismissed from the Re-Entry Program if you break these rules, and all appropriate authorities will be notified immediately.

There are other infractions which are of a more minor nature but are just as important to the operation of our program. Repeated violations of these rules are grounds for the discipline of our participants, up to and including dismissal from the program.

Violation of Rules

More minor incidents that break the rules of this Community Agreement will be logged in a written violation report by a pastor, volunteer, or staff. And will be placed in your file. These files are accessible by TDOC employees, Probation, and Parole Officers at any time requested. If you obtain three of these written violation reports within 90 days, you will be dismissed from the program and the proper authorities will be notified.

I have read all the rules and guidelines, and I understand them and will abide by them.
